SET School Policies

The school programs are for students in grade 1 through 8.

The school is not responsible for incorrect student information. For effective communication, please ensure that correct phone numbers and email addresses are provided on the application. Please notify us immediately of any changes.

All school announcements and communication will be made through email.

Weather cancellations will also be posted on our website. Please consider the safety of the roads when deciding to come in.

Eating and drinking is not allowed in class, students should bring a snack and a drink for recess or after class.

Parents must notify the school of any medical conditions including allergies.

At SET School we value the principles of kindness, equal opportunity and cultural diversity. In the spirit of maintaining a safe and welcoming environment, we do not tolerate physical, verbal or emotional bullying, violent or destructive behavior, or inappropriate language.

All students are expected to behave in a responsible and appropriate manner both to themselves and to others, showing consideration, courtesy and respect for other people and creatures at all times.

Students must show care and respect to all materials and equipment at the facility.

Students will not use the school computers for any purpose other than class work.

Responsible usage of the Internet is expected at all times.

Students cannot leave the building without their parent/legal guardian or any other authorized person.
